

I support the Legislation that created the NJ Do Not Call List. This has resulted in a dramatic reduction in the amount of annoyance that New Jersey residents are subjected to. This matter should be left up to the states to determine rather than being dictated by the Federal Government.